This closing paragraph of Christ s Great Commission is one of the chief martyrs of Christendom, sharing this sad distinction with the Lord s Prayer. Its terms are made to endure constant and glib quotation, while their import is often ignored, and their appeal too frequently goes unheeded. It is, indeed, a great task which Christ here entrusts to His Church; even His most ardent followers would fear to undertake it, had He not promised to be with them alway in carrying it out. We are to teach those who have been baptized all things whatsoever He has commanded us - that is, the whole truth which Christ has revealed. And this teaching is to be done in such a manner that they may observe all these things. Those who through Baptism have been grafted into Christ - as branches into the Tree of Life - are to be trained to bear fruit of His whole truth; in brief,...
