By Joseph Smith Jr

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Joseph Smith, Prophet and Founder of the Latter-day Saint Faith, ran for President of the United States because he felt the other candidates were not morally fit to be President. A little-known fact is that Joseph Smith established his political principles clearly while running for President of the United States. He compiled his political platform in a pamphlet for distribution. It offered solutions for many of the nation s most pressing problems. This book includes the basics of his political platform. Unique and far ahead of it s day, he even had a plan to liberate the slaves, which if enacted could have spared the country much of an ugly Civil War.
