Britpop Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.If you shake a bottle of pop - and flip the top - it explodes. That's what happened to the Beatles. They were a musical tsunami. From 1962-70 they recorded songs teens and adults yearned to hear. Their melodies still spark and glow, and their harmonies move together like parallel lines. It feels like they are in the same room-singing directly to you. Music journalist Mark Paul Brickley's new book Postcards From Liverpool: Beatles Moments Memories recounts rarely heard tales from the Beatles legacy including the story of their first single, Love Me Do. The book's Rishikesh chapter remembers the band's immersion in Transcendental Meditation and offers an alternate ending to the group's exodus from Maharishi's ashram. The world's greatest sitarist Ravi Shankar is profiled in The Sitar's Sound, and the peak of McCartney's solo career is reviewed in Wings Over Africa. The book concludes with a revealing Author's Interview. The 2017 book traces the Beatles' source sounds. It deconstructs the band's layered harmonies, examines their songwriting influences and reveals the group's...

Reviews

This book will never be straightforward to start on reading through but quite enjoyable to learn. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. Your lifestyle span will probably be converted once you complete reading this publication.
