CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 102 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Olivia's life had just gotten back to normal after the death of her parents, when her beloved grandmother passed away. This was when her world began to turn upside down. She would soon discover some shocking things about her family, especially the grandmother whom she had lived with for so many years and her sister had turned into someone completely different than the beautiful person that she thought she knew. How could anyone know so little about the family they grew up with? She was even beginning to wonder how well she knew her best friend. Olivia seemed to wake up one morning to a life that wasn't her own and nothing could have prepared her for the involvement she would have in a whirlwind international event involving the world of fashion, diamonds, detectives and theft. Then there's the circus thing. Who would have ever thought she would be drawn into the middle of that? And to actually find a little romance within all of the chaos was so far beyond anything she could have ever imagined. This was too much for a small town girl to deal with in such a short period of time. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
