SO YOU THINK YOU KNOW ABOUT HELL It is a place of unrelenting misery and interminable pain and sorrow. It a place of lost hope, a dismal abyss where remorse is candy, and tears, nectar, to unforgiving monstrosities with endless appetites. In life, Samuel Rylandt was a serial rapist and murderer who callously committed heinous acts with no regard whatsoever for the women he victimized. In death, however, he will suffer the consequences of his depravity as his soul undergoes a startling corporeal transformation and he is thrown to Hell (Omerion) to complete three horrific phases of moral reconstruction. Samuels notions of the underworld are broadened as he learns that Hell is actually an elaborate civilization where the damned agonizingly learn the virtues that evaded them in life. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
