Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Witch of Endor a Tragedy Time. - The Barley Harvest; late afternoon. Scene. - A field on the uplands of Benjamin, along which extend ordered rows of the gathered grain. At right, near a grove of olives, and half-way up the field, is a broken oil-press. A path winds through clustered palms at left to rear. In the rear the plain sweeps away to where the Jordan winds among the reeds and sedges. Beyond the Jordan a vista of mountains looming through a purple haze edged with sunset-gold. Gleaners are moving up and down the field, gathering what is left from the harvest. In the foreground two women - the one old and haggard - the other young and of an exquisite grace - are binding their bundles with ropes of twisted straw. At the oil-press, with her gleanings at her feet, sits a woman of unusual beauty. She is tall and her hair is the colour of red wine. The younger of the two gleaners stands up from her task, stretching her arms...
