Austral, 2015. soft. Book Condition: New. «Dingo se llamaba Domingo, había nacido en domingo y pretendía hacer de su vida una continuada fiesta. » Así se nos presenta el protagonista de esta historia, Dingo el titiritero, que se dirige hacia el lugar del que huyó hace años, Artámila Baja, una aldea mísera de un rocoso valle. Es la noche de carnaval y llueve en el hondo valle de gentes que no conocen otra fiesta que la del Noroeste. El carro del titiritero ha caminado por accidente sobre el cuerpo de un niño. Dingo acudirá al que es ahora amo del pueblo, Juan Medinao, quien iniciará un implacable recorrido por la memoria. Con su sutil análisis, Ana María Matute logra mostrarnos la grandeza trágica de una vida malograda desde la niñez y lo hace con el humanismo y la poesía que la revelaron como una de las principales sensibilidades de la narrativa española contemporánea, ya en 1952 con la primera publicación de esta novela que ahora recuperamos.
