Excerpt from Joint Legislative Commission on Seafood and Aquaculture: Report to the 1991 General Assembly of North Carolina, 1992 Session In addition to the topics described above, three specific issues were referred to the Joint Legislative Commission following the 1991 Legislative Session. The first issue, House Bill 1105, was introduced by Representative Harry Payne and concerns whether the State should require a license to sell fish taken from coastal fishing waters. The study may include, requiring licenses, license fees, implementation and collection of fees, and use of proceeds of fees. The second issue, which resulted from a recommendation of this Joint Legislative Commission, relates to the organizational structure of the Marine Fisheries Commission. Recommendations on both of these issues must be made to the 1992 General Assembly (regular Session). Finally, a third topic for study, House Bill 1032, introduced by Representative Robert Grady, concerns transferring the authority to grant shellfish leases from the Marine Fisheries Commission to the Secretary of the Department of Environment, Health, and Natural Resources. This issue may be reported to the 1992 General Assembly or the 1993 General Assembly. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
