His case differed from the case of Miss Lillian G. Gowdy, of Paterson, in that he had always been paid in twelve instalments in strict accordance with the rule in force at the time he was first employed, while Miss Gowdy for a number of years, and after the tenure of service act was passed, had been paid in ten instalments. It was held by the State Superintendent in her case that changing the payment from ten to twelve monthly instalments resulted in a reduction of her salary in violation of the tenure of service law. This decision was later sustained by the Supreme Court. STATE FEDERATION OF DISTRICT BOARDS OF EDUCATION The following recommendations were adopted by the State Federation of District Boards of Education at its meeting held on Saturday, November 28: 1. That the Federation favors an amendment to the pension law, so that said law will be made effective as of July 1, 1914 (by the best means possible). 2. That the Federation favors taking steps immediately, looking toward the merging of the pension law and the Teachers Retirement Fund law into one beneficial law, and that the Legislative Committee be instructed to work with that end in view. 3. That the Legislative Committee be instructed to reintroduce the bill relating to Teachers Tenure of Service, that was presented to the Legislature last year, and use all proper methods to have said bill enacted into a law. 5. That we favor...
