I had invited Judge Arthur to speak on the subject framed in a somewhat different way--it was written, The Secrets of the Consultation Chamber. He quickly replied to that suggestion with a letter in which he said that he had better eliminate the word Secrets, and substitute the word Room for Chamber. There is a little feeling, I understand, among the members of the Supreme Court--three new men went on the first of the year. As I understand from pretty good authority, for some reason or other these three men insisted upon the State Board of Health fumigating the chambers of the Supreme Court, and the other members of the Court have rather resented it. I dont know just exactly what to expect from this next speaker, but I am going to wait in great expectation. I have the great pleasure of introducing Judge Thomas Arthur....
