Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Missions and Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Vol. 3 of 3 Provision had been made by the General Conference which met in Philadelphia, in May, 1864, for the organization of the India work into a Mission Annual Conference. The limitations of a Mission Conference were not altogether grateful to the missionaries, and that nothing could be done by the proposed conference without the concurrence of the Bishop in charge was positively repulsive; however, they consented to be organized when they were assured that Bishop Thomson would allow them to put upon record a solemn protest against this unwelcome veto power given to the Bishop. Among the reasons assigned for this bold dissent to the form of organization proposed by the General Conference, was that this left their relation to the Church ill-defined. The succeeding General Conference swept all these limitations away. The brethren met the Bishop at Lucknow on the morning of December 8, 1864. After the opening religious services, conducted by the Bishop, and the holy communion, the Bishop addressed the conference in words glowing with beauty and flaming with the missionary spirit. The address was published with the minutes of the Conference. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
