Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. All Is Well is a book about a girl who grew up hating herself- her naming being Summer. She always knew she wanted to do something great with her life but didn't know what exactly. In the third grade she began disliking what she looked like, what she sounded like, and everything she did; a feeling a lot of teenage girls and boys could unfortunately relate to. Summer moves to a new school which only makes the situation worse, causing her to feel hated and unwelcome. She decides it is best to blend in with the walls and crowded hallways- to disappear from everyone but what she didn't realize was that she was not only cutting herself out from other people's lives, but destroying herself in the process. This book tells the story about how she became OK with herself and those around her, by accepting, learning, and growing along with discreet tips and bits of advice to anyone who could relate to this story.
