Heather M. Miles. Paperback. Condition: New. 346 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Walking into a private sex club shouldnt have been so hard for a Ph. Dd sex therapist, but it was. Eliza Swift was trained to understand the human sexual condition, but it didnt translate into her own life. Challenged by a patient that her knowledge of what constitutes mild to deviant behavior is only based on books, has her second guessing her personal and professional life. The Ravens Nest is a high-end sex club where desires are lived out and identities are kept safe. Intrigued and eager to learn the hidden secrets of the club, Eliza begs the only man she knows with the sexual appetite, privilege and power to take her, Nick Slade. Her playboy best friend and the only constant in her life. Nicks very protective of the woman whos owned his heart for as long as he can remember. Initially reluctant to bring Eliza into his secret world, Nick takes the chance to prove hes more than a friend, hoping to show her a different side of his sexuality while expanding hers. What he doesnt anticipate is how captivated everyone at The Ravens Nest becomes with the stunning brunette, whose shy demeanor entices them to draw her out. No person more than, Lake Mitchell, the billionaire club owner who rarely steps into the seductive world but finds himself fascinated by the gorgeous woman whos clearly out of place. Never more intrigued, Lake steps into her private world as a patient to obtain her. Eliza is enamored by his passionate declarations of obsession and the need to claim someone so thoroughly. Her attraction alone has her nervous, but his subtle flirtations make her question whether she can continue to treat him as a patient. Their...
