Recorded by George Hunt.) Oldest-One-in-the-World and his tribe lived at Red-SandBeach; and Oldest-One-in-the-World had for his princess Many-colored-Woman, and the woman was blind. Many-colored-Woman had twelve slaves; and she would always go to 8nE8wed, where there is wild rice. For a long time she was in the habit of going there; and a long pole stood outside of the house of Chief Oldest-One-in-the-World, and on top of the long pole an eagle was sitting; and it screeched all the time whenever Many-colored-Woman went out paddling with her twelve slaves. Thus Many-colored-Woman knew which way they were going, on account of the princess-pole. One day the sea was very smooth, and Many-colored-Woman asked her slaves to go to 8nE8wed. The slaves were content. They had been paddling a long time when Many-colored-Woman questioned her slaves, and said, O slaves! why does it take so long before we arrive at 8nE8wed. Thus she said. One of them spoke, and said, O mistress! we cannot make any headway against the tide. Thus he said. Then Many-colored-Woman began to hear the screeching of the eagle faintly. She hardly heard it. Then Many-colored-Woman spoke again, and said, O slaves! what are you doing. Thus she said, and took away their paddles and threw them into the water. Then she knew that they were intending to paddle away with...
