Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The North Chicago Street Railroad Company and Its Lines, 1889 In this connection it is probably worth while to show what has been the effect of the cable road on values: Godfrey Schmid a large property owner, writes: Everybody knows that property on the North Side has risen in value since the cable lines were built, some of it 50 per cent., and I am sure none of it has been damaged. Continuing, he adds: It (the cable) has been a decided advantage to the residents and property owners, the daily M108 to the contrary notwithstanding. E. S. Dreyer Co. Write that renting on the North Side is better this year than ever before. If the value of real estate has considerably increased, compared with prices two or three years ago, and the improvements and new buildings erected in the last two years eclipse those of any time prior to the inauguration of the cable system. A. Loeb Son say in a letter that the cable system has been advantageous to real estate on the North Side. W. D. Kerfoot Co. Write We have been selling for the past few years a great deal of property in the southern portion of Lake View, and find by comparing the sales made two years ago with those made recently that prices have advanced fully 100 per cent. Turner Co. Also bear testimony to the benefits of the cable system and its good effect on property. Dozens of other letters of the same character from real estate dealers, owners and agents could be quoted, but these are sufficient to expose the evil spirit which has prompted the M108 in its as...
